our events

The numerous events which are organized by the University of St. Gallen's Marketing Club are private events accessible to all members and marketing students enrolled at the University of St.Gallen. They range from company visits and presentations through workshops and key note speeches to social and career events in collaboration with the career and corporate services center of the University of St.Gallen.

career events

Impress our members with all that your company has to offer as a prospective employer and show them the attractive opportunities available in your sector.

workshops

This session is designed to give our members the opportunity to take part in a real-life scenario from your daily work. Let them work on one of your company cases and have them develop solution strategies.

company presentations

Take advantage to provide our members with priceless insights into your company and the sector which you are operating in. Describe your business culture and highlight the attractive career opportunities offered.

company dinner

We give you the chance to choose a select group of students and invite them to dinner in St. Gallen. You will have the opportunity to get to know our members better in an informal setting and connect with them on a more personal level.

social events

We want to bring together like-minded individuals interested in design, branding and communications. We offer a broad networking scope and a platform for enthusiastic students where new ideas can unfold.

partnership

We are your dedicated partner for managing your presence on campus. Team up with the marketing club on a partnership basis and make our members enthusiastic about you as an attractive employer.

A partnership with the marketing club of the university of St. Gallen is worthwhile, because your company gets access to collegiate networks, thereby you increase the range of your company. Considering the range, we mean it in the whole sense; Present and stage your company and discover which candidates are best suited to your company.

We offer two different options for your company to get in contact with our members. On the following pages you can find detailed descriptions about the possibilities as well as the advantages given by being our partner.
